CHAMPAGNE SOARING.

All Imported Liquors Boosted as Far as They Can Go Against Domestic Goods.

While the four free city markets were holding down the price of vegetables and other farm produce today hundreds of speculators in flour, wheat and sugar were sending those staples skyward, establishing new high records on all and doing everything possible to sell huge shipments

Flour rose 20 cents a barrel over of breadstuffs in New York City.

It's Economy to buy Linens now--

Naturally, then, the scarcity of raw material from which Linens are made will automatically increase the price of linens.

We have never had a more abundant or better assorted stock of desirable household Linens of all kinds and we suggest to our customers and the public generally that the present time offers a most favorable opportunity to purchase linens at prices materially lower than they are likely to be for a long time to come.

gant heights was freely predicted by wholesale importers to-day when statistics were given showing that the store in New York is the smallest since 1888. Practically no shipments are now bound for America, the great tea importing centres not favoring exports, and the store now in New York is 129,140 packages, as compared with an average store of 300,000 packages. Prices are about four cents a pound higher than on Aug. 1.

Wholesale quotations on liquors and frugs were also higher, champagne rising an additional $2 a case, making a total increase of $10 since July 25. The proposed tax on liquor was seized as an excuse by the dealers to post prices slightly on domestic brands, but the foreign brands alstitutes. Scotch and Irish whiskies, to fix the blame for the high prices of food.

Questioned by Assistant DistrictAttorney Fleischman, Mr. Edwards maid that meats generally were now selling for less than at any time since last June and were even cheaper than is usual at this time of year. He took veal and lamb as a particular example. Since Aug. 15, he said, weal and lamb had dropped from $14.15 a hundred weight to $12.14. Other meats had dropped in price proportionately.

"I account for it by a falling off in demand," said Mr. Edwards. "Acitation in the newspapers regarding the high cost of meats caused many householders of stop buying and cut down their purchases. The demand fell off and we had to sell for what we could get."

HORSE THROWS GOV. WALSH.

Bay State Executive Has Arm Broken in Practice Ride.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Gov. Walsh passed a comfortable night, it was stated to-day at the private hospital to which he was removed yesterday suffering from a compound fracture of the right arm, as a result of a fall from a horse at the Park Riding School.

The accident happened as the Governor was about to mount for a practice ride in preparation for the Star Spangled Banner parade in Baltimore next Friday. The animal started violently as another horse jostled him and threw Gov. Walsh to the ground. All of the Executive's engagements for the present week have been cancelled. ROSTON, Sept. 8 .- Gov.
